

ROBERT C. KAY

Robert C. Kay is a seasoned Corporate Director and Business Advisor. He combines business and legal skills with extensive experience in international commerce to develop and assess complex strategies with governments and multinational companies.

Robert now serves as a Corporate Director in both privately held and publicly listed companies. He is currently Vice-Chairman/Lead Director of Migao Corporation and serves on the Audit, Governance, and Compensation Committees. He is a Corporate Director of Baton Pharma Inc, and Baycrest Centre for Geriatric Care.

Previous notable governance roles include: Chairman-Canadian Commercial Corporation; Chairman-Swiss Canadian Chamber of Commerce; Director in Residence-Institute of Corporate Directors; Board Director-Changfeng Energy Inc; Board Director-American Chamber of Commerce (Ontario Council). Robert was a Board Member in the Integrative Thinking Practicum of the MBA degree program at the University of Toronto, and has also served as an Adjudicator on the Ontario Municipal Board, a quasi-judicial body. Earlier in his career, Robert served as Personal Assistant to the Deputy Prime Minister of Canada.

Community and professional organizations benefit from Robert's expertise. He contributes his time as a Chairman of the Baycrest Board Committee on Clinical Strategy, Quality & Safety. He is also a Member of the Royal Canadian Military Institute (Finance Committee), the American Judges Association, and the Institute of Corporate Directors.